

ASPCA® Externship in Community Medicine

The ASPCA is offering an exciting new externship in Community Medicine!

Community Medicine Externs will gain hands-on experience providing veterinary care in underserved communities. This externship takes place in a safe and supportive environment with the opportunity for mentorship while attending the program and beyond.

Community Medicine Externs will:

- Build client communication skills
- Perform physical exams and basic diagnostics
- Support our HQHVSN clinics
- Assist with research projects
- Engage in community outreach and home visits
- Participate in a surgery techniques lab
- See mobile clinics in action
- And more!

Candidates must be third or fourth-year veterinary students in good academic standing at an AVMA accredited school of Veterinary Medicine. Externs may participate in a 1 or 2 week program with the New York City Community Medicine team. The ASPCA does not offer housing accommodations or parking. Applications must be received at least two months prior to the requested start date.

Visit aspcanet.org/externship to fill out the externship application and submit with a copy of your CV. For additional information, please email Stefanie Leguillow at Stefanie.Leguillow@aspcanet.org.

A limited number of Externs will be accepted this year, so apply soon!
