

Watch out for Blue Green Algae

Sunny weather of 75 degrees or over promotes the growth of cynobacteria, an algae that thrives in bodies of fresh water and can make your pet seriously sick!

The bacteria is invisible to the eye but may appear pea-green in color or have slime on the surface.

Symptoms of ingestion include drooling, disorientation, weakness, vomiting, panting, collapse, seizures, and respiratory and liver failure.