

Keep Away

The below items may be dangerous for some pets to consume and can cause reactions ranging from stomach upset to death. Avoid sharing these and seek help if ingestion occurs!

Alcohol

Avocados

Chocolate

Coffee

Garlic

Grapes/Raisins

Macadamia Nuts

Onions

Products
Containing Xylitol

Raw Yeast Bread
Dough

Share Sparingly

These foods are safe to share sparingly with pets in small portions when unseasoned and cut into pieces.

Be sure to remove any seeds, cores, stems, or peels from fruits!

Apples

Bananas

Blueberries

Broccoli

Carrots

Cauliflower

Cheese

Popcorn

Strawberries

Xylitol-Free
Peanut Butter

If you think your pet may have eaten something poisonous, stay calm and call the ASPCA® Animal Poison Control Center or your veterinarian.

ASPCA®

Animal Poison
Control Center
(888) 426-4435