

- Your pet has been prescribed Acepromazine in order to provide mild sedation to help keep him/her calm. Please follow all label instructions for administering medication.
 - Possible side effects include excessive sedation, increased excitement or aggression, hypothermia, and/or hypotension.
 - If your pet is too sedate or if you see any of these side effects, stop giving the medication and contact us at 855-434-9285. This helpline is open 24 hours.
-

- Your pet has been prescribed Acepromazine in order to provide mild sedation to help keep him/her calm. Please follow all label instructions for administering medication.
 - Possible side effects include excessive sedation, increased excitement or aggression, hypothermia, and/or hypotension.
 - If your pet is too sedate or if you see any of these side effects, stop giving the medication and contact us at 855-434-9285. This helpline is open 24 hours.
-

- Your pet has been prescribed Acepromazine in order to provide mild sedation to help keep him/her calm. Please follow all label instructions for administering medication.
 - Possible side effects include excessive sedation, increased excitement or aggression, hypothermia, and/or hypotension.
 - If your pet is too sedate or if you see any of these side effects, stop giving the medication and contact us at 855-434-9285. This helpline is open 24 hours.
-

- Your pet has been prescribed Acepromazine in order to provide mild sedation to help keep him/her calm. Please follow all label instructions for administering medication.
 - Possible side effects include excessive sedation, increased excitement or aggression, hypothermia, and/or hypotension.
 - If your pet is too sedate or if you see any of these side effects, stop giving the medication and contact us at 855-434-9285. This helpline is open 24 hours.
-