Adoption Ambassadors

An active foster program that empowers fosters to find the adopter for dogs in their care. The foster home does all aspects of the adoption and the dog does not go back to the shelter for any part of the adoption process.

How it Started
Initial Considerations

- Flow of dogs at the shelter
- Which dogs can enter the program?
- Who will coordinate volunteers?
- Communication method for program
What We Did

• Recruited volunteers
• Trained Adoption Ambassadors to do Adoptions
• Provided tools
• Set a suggested timeline
• SUPPORT!

“Where in the world is _______?”
We found her on an abandoned property chained to a post next to the body of a dead dog. She sat huddled in the mud without food or water next to the decaying body of her friend for who knows how long. She could have given up. She could have been aggressive. But instead this little broken girl wiggled up to anyone that approached and gave them gentle kisses. We placed her into foster care where she has blossomed into the loving playful Grace we know now. She is surrounded by love and for the first time in her life she is allowed to play. Her story is one of heartache and survival but we are still waiting for her happy ending. Do you need a little Grace in your life?
Underdog Happy Endings!
Inspired Staff!
Excited Volunteers!
Engaged Community!

• Hot list of places for dogs to strut
• Partnered with the dog park to promote adoptions
• Doggie Day Care businesses became Adoption Ambassadors too!

ADOPTION AMBASSADORS

Want a program that places more dogs into homes, engages insiders as well as the community, and can even be managed by a single individual? Here it is! The Adoption Ambassadors program will not require more shelter resources or more kennel space, and will save more lives than you would have thought possible. Here is a detailed guide for getting the Adoption Ambassadors program up and running.
